The Steinway Piano

¶ To uphold a reputation for tone quality unequalled; to build a piano that has fixed the basic principles for all makes; to create a world standard and keep it at a level unapproached by others — that is the Steinway achievement through four generations.

¶ Quality should be the only determining factor in the selection of a piano.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

DEPARTMENT OF GERMAN

Training Courses for Teachers of German.

With the coöperation of the German Alliance of the State of Indiana, a Training School for Teachers of German will be conducted at Indiana University during the First half of the Summer term, beginning Thursday, June 20, and ending Tuesday, July 30. The work will be given in connection with the Summer courses in German, and will be in charge of Professor Max Griebisch, Director of the National German-American Teachers' Seminary of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, with the assistance of J. H. Henke, Supervisor of German at Evansville.

Both the theoretical and the practical sides of the subject will receive attention, the former in the course on Methods of Teaching Modern Languages, the latter in the model classes to be organized in First and Second Year German.

This work will be supplemented by the regular collegiate and graduate courses of the Summer School.

For particulars address Professor B. J. Vos, Indiana University, Bloomington, Ind.
